Riva2 530 & 670 Evoke Steel Gas Fires

A stunning gas fire

The Evoke Steel is a stunning, two-part design that blends expertly into today's modern interiors. The front face of this frame comes in a stylish graphite finish with the option for customisation in one of four exciting additional colour choices. The attractive bevelled rear is left in graphite to perfectly complement the standard finish on the front or form a contrasting border to either of the bold colour choices. With Thermostatic remote control and high efficiency output, the Riva2 Evoke steel gas fire will be as impacting in its functionality as it is in its designer aesthetics.

Front finishes: Graphite, Metallic Red, Metallic Blue, Metallic Bronze and Ivory.

Rear finishes: Graphite.

Linings: Vermiculite, Brick effect and Black reeded.

Fuel bed: Logs.

Command Controls: Thermostatic remote.
