Studio Electric Evolve

Stylish electric fire

The Studio Electric Evolve is a stylish two-part frame that features a subtly curving front in a choice of Walnut or Oak finishes bordered by sophisticated black steel rear.

As standard, the Studio Electric Evolve has a sophisticated black steel rear on to which the front, made from a choice of Walnut, Light Oak or Medium Oak finishes, is affixed.

The Studio Electric Evolve comes with contrasting Brushed Steel infills which fit into recesses on either side of the front of the frame, however the Studio Evolve can be further styled to your own décor by choosing from three additional infill options; White or Black finished Steel or Polished Steel. So you can alter the look of your fire whenever you want!

Front finish choices: Walnut, Light Oak and Medium Oak.

Studio Evolve infill finishes: Brushed Steel (standard), Polished Steel (upgradable), Black Steel (upgradable) and White Steel (upgradable).
